(2) Venue:

The tournament will take place at Plan-les-Ouates (Geneva), a commune on the outskirts of Geneva. There are 42 communes in the Canton of Geneva. One of the main characteristics of the Canton is a very homogeneous mix of a medium-sized city of great international importance with a major airport and a well-preserved rural countryside, located at a maximum of 15 kilometres from the city centre. The Canton is located between the Jura to the north and the Alps to the south. The Geneva international airport is 20 minutes by motor vehicle from the venue of the competition.

Public buses 23 and 42 stop at the “Le Rolliet” bus stop. There is free parking at the site of the competition.

A network of buses and regional trains provide easy access from all surrounding areas. Hotels and restaurants are concentrated at Plan-les-Ouates and Lancy or near the main train station in the centre of Geneva. There are a number of hotels well located for access to the tournament in the centre of Geneva. The climate of Geneva is mild, and at the beginning of October sunny weather is expected with temperatures around 20° C (68° F) during the day and 12° C (54° F) at night.
